For the first month, items listed on Selected New Titles circulate to primary clientele (i.e., Members, Legislative Assembly staff, etc.) only. The loan period is 2 weeks for books and 1 week for government publications.

Ontario government publications appearing in the Monthly Checklist, which is compiled and edited by the Checklist and Catalogue Service of the Legislative Library, are not included in Selected New Titles.

Up-to-date status of bills reports indicating the progress of bills in the current session of the Ontario Legislature, the Parliament of Canada and other Canadian provinces may be consulted in the Legislative Library.

We welcome recommendations for books, periodicals and other materials to be added to the collection. Please contact Collections Development at 325-3913.

Le prêt des documents signalés dans Sélection de nouveautés est réservé, pendant le premier mois, à la clientèle principale de la bibliothèque (soit les députés, le personnel de l'Assemblée législative, etc.). La durée du prêt est de deux semaines pour les livres et d'une semaine pour les publications officielles.

Ne sont pas incluses dans Sélection de nouveautés les publications officielles de l'Ontario qui figurent dans la Liste mensuelle préparée par le Service de compilation et de catalogage de la Bibliothèque de l'Assemblée législative.

On peut consulter à la bibliothèque des rapports indiquant l'état des projets de loi qui sont à l'étude durant la session actuelle des législatures de l'Ontario, du Canada et d'autres provinces du pays.

Nous acceptons très volontiers vos recommandations concernant les livres, périodiques et autres documents que vous aimeriez voir dans la collection de la bibliothèque. Prière de vous adresser à la Section du développement des collections, au 325-3913.

Editor/Rédactrice : Gillian Amara (325-3913)

- 4 CHRISTIAN, WILLIAM. George Grant : a biography. Toronto : University of Toronto Press, 1993. 472 p.
 -- "When George Grant died in Halifax in 1988, he was acknowledged as one of Canada's most original thinkers. His best-known books, including Lament for a Nation and Technology and Empire, influenced a generation of Canadians. But the terms that were often used to describe him - Canadian nationalist, Red Tory, critic of liberalism and Liberalism - failed to capture his central thought. His originality remained elusive." BUSINESS / ECONOMICS / TRADE

- 5 ARBOUR, PIERRE. Québec Inc. and the temptation of state capitalism. Montreal : R. Davies Publishing, 1993. 179 p.
 -- The author, a former portfolio manager with the Caisse de dépôt et placement (the Quebec pension plan), reveals details of the fund's money-losing investments in numerous Quebec big-business concerns. He shows that many of these investments were made for political rather than financial reasons, and questions whether a public pension fund should be allowed to overstep its primary mandate to protect the interests of its contributors. For the first month, items listed on Selected New Titles circulate to primary clientele (i.e., Members, Legislative Assembly staff, etc.) only. The loan period is 2 weeks for books and 1 week for government publications.

Ontario government publications appearing in the Monthly Checklist, which is compiled and edited by the Checklist and Catalogue Service of the Legislative Library, are not included in Selected New Titles.

Up-to-date status of bills reports indicating the progress of bills in the current session of the Ontario Legislature, the Parliament of Canada and other Canadian provinces may be consulted in the Legislative Library.

We welcome recommendations for books, periodicals and other materials to be added to the collection. Please contact Collections Development at 325-3913.

Le prêt des documents signalés dans Sélection de nouveautés est réservé, pendant le premier mois, à la clientèle principale de la bibliothèque (soit les députés, le personnel de l'Assemblée législative, etc.). La durée du prêt est de deux semaines pour les livres et d'une semaine pour les publications officielles.

Ne sont pas incluses dans Sélection de nouveautés les publications officielles de l'Ontario qui figurent dans la Liste mensuelle préparée par le Service de compilation et de catalogage de la Bibliothèque de l'Assemblée législative.

On peut consulter à la bibliothèque des rapports indiquant l'état des projets de loi qui sont à l'étude durant la session actuelle des législatures de l'Ontario, du Canada et d'autres provinces du pays.

Nous acceptons très volontiers vos recommandations concernant les livres, périodiques et autres documents que vous aimeriez voir dans la collection de la bibliothèque. Prière de vous adresser à la Section du développement des collections, au 325-3913.

Editor/Rédactrice : Gillian Amara (325-3913)

For the first month, items listed on Selected New Titles circulate to primary clientele (i.e., Members, Legislative Assembly staff, etc.) only. The loan period is 2 weeks for books and 1 week for government publications.

Ontario government publications appearing in the Monthly Checklist, which is compiled and edited by the Checklist and Catalogue Service of the Legislative Library, are not included in Selected New Titles.

Up-to-date status of bills reports indicating the progress of bills in the current session of the Ontario Legislature, the Parliament of Canada and other Canadian provinces may be consulted in the Legislative Library.

We welcome recommendations for books, periodicals and other materials to be added to the collection. Please contact Collections Development at 325-3913.

Le prêt des documents signalés dans Sélection de nouveautés est réservé, pendant le premier mois, à la clientèle principale de la bibliothèque (soit les députés, le personnel de l'Assemblée législative, etc.). La durée du prêt est de deux semaines pour les livres et d'une semaine pour les publications officielles.

Ne sont pas incluses dans Sélection de nouveautés les publications officielles de l'Ontario qui figurent dans la Liste mensuelle préparée par le Service de compilation et de catalogage de la Bibliothèque de l'Assemblée législative.

On peut consulter à la bibliothèque des rapports indiquant l'état des projets de loi qui sont à l'étude durant la session actuelle des législatures de l'Ontario, du Canada et d'autres provinces du pays.

Nous acceptons très volontiers vos recommandations concernant les livres, périodiques et autres documents que vous aimeriez voir dans la collection de la bibliothèque. Prière de vous adresser à la Section du développement des collections, au 325-3913.

Editor/Rédactrice : Gillian Amara (325-3913)

We welcome recommendations for books, periodicals and other materials to be added to the collection. Please contact Collections Development at 325-3913.

Le prêt des documents signalés dans Sélection de nouveautés est réservé, pendant le premier mois, à la clientèle principale de la bibliothèque (soit les députés, le personnel de l'Assemblée législative, etc.). La durée du prêt est de deux semaines pour les livres et d'une semaine pour les publications officielles.

Ne sont pas incluses dans Sélection de nouveautés les publications officielles de l'Ontario qui figurent dans la Liste mensuelle préparée par le Service de compilation et de catalogage de la Bibliothèque de l'Assemblée législative.

On peut consulter à la bibliothèque des rapports indiquant l'état des projets de loi qui sont à l'étude durant la session actuelle des législatures de l'Ontario, du Canada et d'autres provinces du pays.

Nous acceptons très volontiers vos recommandations concernant les livres, périodiques et autres documents que vous aimeriez voir dans la collection de la bibliothèque. Prière de vous adresser à la Section du développement des collections, au 325-3913.

For the first month, items listed on Selected New Titles circulate to primary clientele (i.e., Members, Legislative Assembly staff, etc.) only. The loan period is 2 weeks for books and 1 week for government publications.

Ontario government publications appearing in the Monthly Checklist, which is compiled and edited by the Checklist and Catalogue Service of the Legislative Library, are not included in Selected New Titles.

Up-to-date status of bills reports indicating the progress of bills in the current session of the Ontario Legislature, the Parliament of Canada and other Canadian provinces may be consulted in the Legislative Library.

We welcome recommendations for books, periodicals and other materials to be added to the collection. Please contact Collections Development at 325-3913.

Le prêt des documents signalés dans Sélection de nouveautés est réservé, pendant le premier mois, à la clientèle principale de la bibliothèque (soit les députés, le personnel de l'Assemblée législative, etc.). La durée du prêt est de deux semaines pour les livres et d'une semaine pour les publications officielles.

Ne sont pas incluses dans Sélection de nouveautés les publications officielles de l'Ontario qui figurent dans la Liste mensuelle préparée par le Service de compilation et de catalogage de la Bibliothèque de l'Assemblée législative.

On peut consulter à la bibliothèque des rapports indiquant l'état des projets de loi qui sont à l'étude durant la session actuelle des législatures de l'Ontario, du Canada et d'autres provinces du pays.

Nous acceptons très volontiers vos recommandations concernant les livres, périodiques et autres documents que vous aimeriez voir dans la collection de la bibliothèque. Prière de vous adresser à la Section du développement des collections, au 325-3913.

Editor/Rédactrice : Natalie Litwin (325-3913)

If you wish to borrow any of the items on this list, please call the Circulation Staff at 325-3901.

Si vous désirez emprunter un ou des documents inclus sur cette liste, veuillez vous adresser aux préposés au prêt, au 325-3901.

La bibliothèque de l'Assemblée législative souhaite la bienvenue à tous les nouveaux députés ainsi qu'à tous ceux qui ont été réélus et nous vous faisons tous nos vœux de réussite pour vos travaux.

La bibliothèque prépare plusieurs publications pour permettre aux députés de se tenir au courant des questions d'actualité. Citons à ce titre Sélection de nouveautés, qui signale les nombreux livres, documents de politique générale, rapports et autres ouvrages qui viennent régulièrement s'ajouter à nos collections. Vous pouvez les emprunter en téléphonant au Service de prêt, au 325-3901.

Sélection de nouveautés sera livrée d'office tous les mois à votre bureau. C'est avec plaisir que nous vous proposons ce service, ainsi qu'à votre personnel.

ARTS AND CULTURE

- 1 DORLAND, MICHAEL. The cultural industries in Canada : problems, policies and prospects / edited by Michael Dorland. Toronto : J. Lorimer & Co., 1996. 376 p.
 - History and analysis of the cultural industry sector and government policy issues. "The Canadian experience, once considered a model of the negative consequences of cultural dependency that other nations had to avoid at their peril, has since become an example to other countries also faced with reconciling aspects of their cultural development with the rigours of an open economy." (070.0971 C 89 1996)

BIOGRAPHY

- 2 HURTIG, MEL. At twilight in the country : memoirs of a Canadian nationalist. Toronto : Stoddart, 1996. 497 p.
 - Hurtig, a publisher and writer, is also a political activist who formed the National Party of Canada in 1992. (971.064 H 94 1996)

BUSINESS AND FINANCE

- 3 SAUVÉ, PIERRE. Investment rules for the global economy : enhancing access to markets / Pierre Sauvé and Daniel Schwanen, eds. Toronto : C.D. Howe Institute, 1996. 332 p.
 - "The members of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) have agreed to negotiate, by May, 1997, a Multilateral Agreement on Investment (MAI). This follows two decades of increasing recognition that the benefits of international trade liberalization would be enhanced by greater freedom of capital movement toward areas where capital is most productive ... In this volume, several experts ... examine the complex issues related to making productive investment flows easier on a global scale..." (332.673 In 8 1996)

COMMUNICATIONS

- 4 CLIMENHAGA, DAVID J. A poke in the public eye : media manipulation for aspiring politicians and other undesirables. Calgary : Detselig Enterprises Ltd., 1995. 128 p.
 - Canadian journalist Climenhaga offers advice on writing news releases ("How to get the publicity you want by encouraging journalists to be lazy"), personal grooming ("Looking sharp may work. Not looking sharp may work more often"), and nurturing beneficial relationships with the media. (302.2308 C 61 1995)

ECONOMICS

- 5 COURCHENE, THOMAS J. Policy frameworks for a knowledge economy / Thomas J. Courchene, editor. Kingston, ON : John Deutsch Institute for the Study of Economic Policy, Queen's University, 1996. 365 p.

- « Un débat a lieu depuis plusieurs années sur les mérites des différents modèles de développement économique dans le monde. Les modèles américain, suédois, allemand et japonais ont tour à tour pris la vedette. Mais qu'en est-il du modèle québécois de développement économique? Comment le caractériser? Comment l'évaluer? » (330.7714 M 73 1995)

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

- 7 ALBERTA. DEPT. OF EDUCATION. CURRICULUM STANDARDS BRANCH. Framework for enhancing business involvement in education. Edmonton : The Branch, 1996. 26 p.
(CA2 AL ED.505 1996 F62)
- 8 HARRISON, MARK. A private education for all. St. Leonards, Australia : Centre for Independent Studies, 1996. 36 p.
- In answer to critics of the Australian public education system, the author advocates introducing competition to the provision of education. He envisions a market system in which schools would compete for students by developing and diversifying their "product" while actively trying to meet the needs of future employers. (379.30994 H 24 1996)
- 9 MacINTYRE, GERTRUDE ANNE. Active partners : education and local development. Sydney, NS : University College of Cape Breton Press, 1995. 197 p.
- "To strengthen its economy, a community's political system must create an inviting legal and regulatory climate while strong cultural identity builds the desire for long-term development ... MacIntyre shows the crucial role of schools as mediators between national and international trends and community initiatives towards sustainable development." (370.1931 M 18 1995)

- "Absence of gradual retirement has been one of the causes of the low [labour force] participation rate of older workers. However, the current move towards reversing this trend ... might well prove a significant policy component for the future. It would help to deal with the critical social problem of ageing by raising the effective retirement age and, in so doing, ease the potentially crushing burden of the future cost of retirement." (331.252 G 75 1996)
- 24 IACOBucci, EDWARD. Value for money : executive compensation in the 1990s / Edward Iacobucci with Michael J. Trebilcock ; with comments by James C. Baillie ... [et al.]. Toronto : C.D. Howe Institute, 1996. 178 p.
- "Reviews the theoretical literature on the incentive properties of alternative compensation regimes for corporate executives and the empirical evidence as to whether these regimes in fact serve socially productive purposes." (330.971 Ob 7 no. 41 1996)

SOCIAL ISSUES

- 25 BLOOM, DAN. Implementing time-limited welfare : early experiences in three states / Dan Bloom, David Butler. New York : Manpower Demonstration Research Corp., 1995. 1 v.
-- "An increasing number of federal, state, and local policymakers and program administrators have embraced the idea of placing time limits on the receipt of Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) ... [The Cross-State Study's] goal is to understand what is involved in translating the time-limit concept into concrete policies and programs ... This report ... focuses on Florida, Vermont, and Wisconsin, three of the earliest states to receive federal waivers to test time-limit programs."
(362.713 B 62 1995)
- 26 LONGMAN, PHILLIP. The return of thrift : how the coming collapse of the middle-class welfare state will reawaken values in America. New York : Free Press, 1996. 241 p.
-- The author is critical of widespread entitlement to American government social programs, arguing that many of them subsidize the middle class through disability and veterans' benefits, housing subsidies and public service pensions. He advocates reducing the number of people eligible for benefits to the very needy.
(330.973 L 86 1996)
- 27 NOVA SCOTIA. DEPT. OF COMMUNITY SERVICES. Report of stakeholder input on Community residential services, a discussion paper on unlicensed services for adults, and Moving towards deinstitutionalization, a discussion paper. [Halifax : The Dept.], 1996. 1 v.

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

- 33 BOSTON, JONATHAN. The state under contract / edited by Jonathan Boston. Wellington, New Zealand : Bridget Williams Books Ltd., 1995. 205 p.
 -- "Government restructuring is much in vogue ... governments are selling state assets, reorganising government departments, contracting out publicly funded services, and reforming their management systems ... These massive reforms raise important questions about the future role of the state. They also raise issues concerning the accountability of public agencies, the ethos of the public service, the proper scope of judicial review, and the appropriate limits to contracting out." Mainly covers recent New Zealand reforms, with some discussion of reforms in Australia, Canada and the United States.

- 12 THOMPSON, ROSS A. Preventing child maltreatment through social support : a critical analysis. Thousand Oaks, CA : Sage Publications, 1995. 224 p.
-- "There has been considerable interest in providing social support to abuse-prone families as a means of preventing child abuse and neglect. It is based on an appreciation of the variety of ways that individuals benefit from the everyday assistance provided by friends, family, and neighbours, and research suggests that one of the most important characteristics of abuse-prone families is that they are isolated from these supportive social ties." This book analyzes and discusses a number of relevant programs and studies, and considers "social support in the broader context of child welfare reform."

prisons, and crime. Albany, NY : State University of New York Press, 1995. 235 p.
-- "Analyzes the origins, contemporary trends, and consequences of sentencing reforms in the United States ... The author argues that policymakers tend to reduce complex reality to a simplistic form that predicts policy consequence and they tend to adhere to criminology theories that have policy implications that are consistent with their policy choices." (345.73 W 63 1995)

- 19 DORN, SHERMAN. Creating the dropout : an institutional and social history of school failure. Westport, CT : Praeger, 1996. 167 p.
 - Examines U.S. government policy towards high school dropouts since 1940. The author notes that encouraging students to stay in high school until graduation may not be consistent with raising standards of school performance. "The fundamental argument of this book is fairly simple: We have chosen the wrong way of looking at dropouts. Instead of seeing different educational outcomes as evidence of remaining inequities in schooling, we have focused instead on the social costs of dropping out, typically imagined as dependency, criminality, and lower economic productivity." ENVIRONMENT

- 25 HARRISON, KATHRYN. Passing the buck : federalism and Canadian environmental policy. Vancouver : UBC Press, 1996. 238 p.
 - "Within Canada the renewed salience of environmental issues in recent years has given rise to legislative and regulatory initiatives by both the federal and provincial governments, and, not coincidentally, to increased intergovernmental conflict... This book considers how the current division of federal and provincial responsibilities for environmental policy evolved, and the implications of this arrangement for the protection of the environment." SALARIES - PENSIONS - BENEFITS

- 44 SMALHOUT, JAMES H. The uncertain retirement : securing pension promises in a world of risk. Chicago : Irwin Professional Pub., 1996. 366 p.
- "Employees are sponsoring pension plans designed for yesterday's labor force — one in which changing jobs was rare if not taboo. Today's workers face an uncertain and less prosperous retirement as a result ... [The author] presents an efficient, cost-effective plan to put the private retirement system on track toward a healthy future."
- (332.024 Sm 1 1996)

SOCIAL ISSUES

- 45 BLOOM, DAN. The family transition program : an early implementation report on Florida's time-limited welfare initiative. New York : Manpower Demonstration Research Corp., 1995. 91 p.
- Evaluates the first year of Florida's Family Transition Program (FTP): "FTP is one of the first efforts to impose a time limit on the receipt of Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC). It also includes an extensive set of incentives, mandates, and services designed to help AFDC recipients prepare for and find employment before reaching the time limit."

- 46 BOATMAN, BARRIE. Beyond common sense : responding to social security reform / prepared by the Resource Facilitation Team of the Social Planning and Research Council of Hamilton-Wentworth : Barrie Boatman, Colleen Van Berkel and Susan West. Hamilton, ON : Social Planning and Research Council of Hamilton-Wentworth, 1995. 36 p.
- Advocates reforming social programs to adapt to changing times. "The world is moving rapidly from the Industrial Age into a New Economy based on information, knowledge and communication. There is a great danger that a two-class society could evolve: the privileged with well-paying jobs in the New Economy, and an underclass with low income or no income ... The challenge facing Canada is to correctly identify economic and societal trends and to implement policies that will provide a continuing quality of life to all members of society."

- 48 GAUTHIER, ANNE. The state and the family : a comparative analysis of family policies in industrialized countries. Oxford : Clarendon Pr., 1996. 232 p.
 -- "Based on an original analysis of qualitative and quantitative material from twenty-two industrialized countries, this book traces the development of state support for families since the turn of the century ... The decline in fertility, the increase in divorce rates and lone-parenthood, and the entry of women into the labour force have all reduced the relevance of systems of state support aimed at traditional male breadwinner-housewife families, and in so doing have forced governments to reform the existing measures of family support."

POLITICS AND GOVERNMENT

- 28 TAFT, KEVIN. Shredding the public interest : Ralph Klein and 25 years of one-party government. Edmonton : University of Alberta Press, 1997. 129 p.
 -- The author is critical of Ralph Klein's governing of the province of Alberta. He accuses the Klein government of cutting public programs such as health care while maintaining subsidies to the private sector. (971.2303 T 13 1997)

SOCIAL ISSUES

- 29 BARTIK, TIMOTHY J. Using performance indicators to improve the effectiveness of welfare-to-work programs. Kalamazoo, MI : W.E. Upjohn Institute for Employment Research, 1995. 82 p.
 -- "This paper argues that it is feasible to develop good indicators of the performance of a particular welfare-to-work program, office, or contractor. Performance indicators can motivate local offices, contractors, and staff to be more effective in achieving the program's goals". (362.58 B 28 1995)
- 30 CENTER FOR THE FUTURE OF CHILDREN. Long-term outcomes of early childhood programs. Los Altos, CA : The Center, 1995. 221 p.

- 31 DAILY BREAD FOOD BANK. Can welfare recipients pay rent and eat too? : a comparison of shelter allowances and spending on accommodation among welfare recipients served by food banks in Toronto. Toronto : Daily Bread Food Bank, 1996. 11 p.
 -- Results of surveys conducted in food banks in the spring of 1995 and the spring of 1996. (361.68 C 16 1996)
- 32 SELDON, ARTHUR. Re-privatising welfare : after the lost century / Arthur Seldon et al. London, UK : Institute of Economic Affairs, 1996. 111 p.
 -- "Ten authors use counterfactual analysis to explore the development of private welfare provision before the state takeover in the late 19th century. They assess what might have happened without that takeover, and draw lessons for the future. Seldon [the editor] concludes that the 'market process' in welfare is likely to replace the 'political process' so that the state will no longer prevent the market from '... discovering the imperfections of the welfare state and the remedies'." (361.6 R 29 1996)
- 33 TORJMAN, SHERRI. Desperate for respite. Ottawa : Caledon Institute for Social Policy, 1997. 1 v.
 -- Discusses the benefits of government funding for respite care and suggests that respite care programs can in many cases reduce the need for more expensive social services geared to full-time care. (362.14 T 63 1997)
- 34 _____ . _____ . Dollars for service : aka individualized funding . Ottawa : Caledon Institute for Social Policy, 1996. 1 v.
 -- Describes the concept of "individualized funding", which "represents an amount of money paid in respect of designated goods and services that have been costed in relation to individual need. The model has been developed primarily around supports and services for persons with disabilities and is being employed in several provinces. But its principles can be applied more broadly to child care, training and postsecondary education." (362.582 T 63 1996)

TRANSPORTATION

- 35 LITMAN, TODD. Whose roads? : defining bicyclists' and other non-drivers' right to use the roadway. Victoria, BC : Victoria Transport Policy Institute, 1995. 11 p.
 -- "The rights of non-motorized modes (bicyclists, pedestrians, skaters, etc.) to use public roadways are frequently challenged ... Bicyclists and pedestrians receive less consideration in road design and funding. They are often accused of contributing less than a fair share toward road costs because they don't pay fuel taxes or registration fees. Are these legitimate arguments? What rights do non-motorized modes have to use public roadways? ... This report explores these questions."
 (388.114 W 62 1996)
- 36 SAMUEL, PETER. Highway aggravation : the case of privatizing the highways. Washington : Cato Institute, 1995. 36 p.

ENVIRONMENT

- 20 BECKERMAN, WILFRED. Through green-colored glasses : environmentalism reconsidered. Washington : Cato Institute, 1996. 230 p.
 -- The author challenges environmentalism: "Beckerman provides ... [an] examination of the central tenets of environmental theory – sustainable development, the precautionary principle, and environmental crises – and concludes that the environmentalist worldview is cluttered with meaningless slogans and dangerously wrong-headed assessments of the state of humanity and the planet ... Beckerman demonstrates that the only political agenda compatible with the professed aims of environmentalism is the maximization of economic growth." (333.72 B 38 1996)
- 21 CANADA. HERITAGE RESOURCES CENTRE. Assessing Lake Erie protected areas : proceedings of a workshop held at the University of Waterloo, January 11, 1996. Waterloo, ON : The Centre, 1996. 98 p. (CA1 .. EV1051 W010)
- 22 ROODMAN, DAVID MALIN. Getting the signals rights : tax reform to protect the environment and the economy. Washington : Worldwatch Institute, 1997. 66 p.
 -- Advocates the taxing of environmentally harmful activities. Estimates that environmental tax revenues generated would allow "for an approximately 20 percent cut in conventional taxes on work and investment. Since total taxation could stay the same, governments would be protecting the environment without hurting economies even in the short term." (300 W 89 no. 134 1997)

FONCTION PUBLIQUE

- 23 FORD, ROBIN. La prestation de rechange des services : pour une gouvernance partagée au Canada / sous la direction de Robin Ford et David Zussman. Toronto : KPMG, 1997. 288 p.

HEALTH AND MEDICINE

- 24 ARMSTRONG, PAT. Medical alert : new work organizations in health care / Pat Armstrong ... [et al.]. Toronto : Garamond Press, 1997. 158 p.
 -- "Private-sector approaches are being widely adopted in health care, but there is little evidence to demonstrate either that they offer a better way to organize work, or that they are applicable to the provision of quality health care. Patients and health care workers describe their experiences in Medical alert ... and their responses challenge the assumptions of private-sector advocates." (362.1068 M 46 1997)
- 25 CANADA. F/P/T COMMITTEE OF OFFICIALS (SENIORS) FOR THE MINISTERS RESPONSIBLE FOR SENIORS. Working together on seniors medication use : a federal/provincial/territorial strategy for action. [Ottawa] : The Committee, 1996. 15 p.

edited by Friedrich Wilhelm Schwartz, Howard Glennerster, Richard B. Saltman.
Chichester, UK : John Wiley, 1996. 239 p.
-- "The notion of a fixed health budget seems self-evident: a public or private payer sets a time-tied ceiling on expenditures ... The design and implementation of fixed budgets in health systems – not to mention their success – varies considerably between countries, within countries, and between health sub-sectors. Fixing health budgets ... reviews the impact of financial reform on the quality and delivery of health care in Austria, Canada, Germany, the Netherlands, Sweden, the UK and the USA."
(338.43362 F 58 f 1996)
- 29 SUTHERLAND, RALPH W. Will nurses call the shots? : a look at the delivery of health care twenty years from now. Plevna, ON : R.W. Sutherland, 1996. 168 p.
-- "Examination of the reasons for the current dominance of physicians. There is discussion of the options for change, and of the merits of the options. Evidence which supports a sharply expanded role for nurses in the delivery of health care is presented." The author is a medical doctor.

HISTORY

- 30 ANGUS, CHARLIE. We lived a life and then some : the life, death, and life of a mining town / Charlie Angus and Brit Griffin. Toronto : Between The Lines, 1996. 145 p.
-- History of Cobalt, Ontario. (971.3144 An 4 1996)

HUMAN RIGHTS

- 31 BAKAN, JOEL. Just words : constitutional rights and social wrongs. Toronto : University of Toronto Press, 1997.
-- "Bakan explains why the Charter has failed to promote social justice, and why it may even impede it ...
He argues that the Charter's fine-sounding words of justice are 'just words'. The principles of equality, freedom, and democracy are interpreted and implemented by a fundamentally conservative institution – the legal system – within social and economic conditions that systematically frustrate their full realization." (342.71085 B 17 1997)
- 32 KNAPP, PETER. The assault on equality / Peter Knapp ... [et al.]. Westport, CT : Praeger, 1996. 281 p.
Worried that "the current aim of of the radical right in the United States is the elimination of policies that equalize opportunities or provide a safety net for the disadvantaged", the author analyzes the research and arguments in recent works such as The Bell Curve and finds them faulty. (323.42 As 7 1996)

LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT

- 33 BRYSON, ALEX. From unemployment to self-employment : the consequences of self-employment for the long-term unemployed. London, UK : Policy Studies Institute, 1996. 117 p.
-- "Little is known about the causes of ... growth in self-employment among the unemployed or how the nature of self-employment has changed as a result. This study ... compare[s] the experiences of both employment and self-employment among people who were previously long-term unemployed."
(331.125 B 84 1996)

LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT (cont'd)

- 34 MICHIGAN. LEGISLATIVE SERVICE BUREAU. LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH DIVISION. Issues relating to the contingent work force / prepared by the Michigan Legislative Service Bureau, Legislative Research Division. [Lansing, MI] : The Division, 1996. 26 p.
 -- "Contingent work force" is defined as temporary employees who are not part of the permanent full-time labour market. "Some labor analysts contend that full-time permanent employment is perhaps becoming an anachronism in today's changing economy." (US2 MI XY.506 R960004)
- 35 SWEENEY, JOHN J. America needs a raise : fighting for economic security and social justice / John J. Sweeney, with David Kusnet. Boston : Houghton Mifflin, 1996. 167 p.
 -- "Sweeney targets the growing disparity between rich and poor; the decline in the standard of living of middle- and working-class Americans, the overwork and unemployment, the racial polarization and ethnic animosity, and the gnawing sense of powerlessness and uncertainty ... He indicts corporate America for its 'lean and mean' abdication of social responsibility." The author is the president of the AFL-CIO. (331.88097 Sw 1 1996)
- 36 TWENTIETH CENTURY FUND. TASK FORCE ON RETRAINING AMERICA'S WORKFORCE. No one left behind : the report of the Twentieth Century Fund Task Force on Retraining America's Workforce / background paper by Carl E. Van Horn. New York : Twentieth Century Fund Press, 1996. 209 p.
 -- "The central conclusion of the Task Force is that improving living standards and relieving economic anxiety requires strengthening the education and training of Americans in the workforce as well as 'dislocated' workers who have lost jobs that will never return." (331.25924 T 91 1996)

LAW

- 37 BRITISH COLUMBIA. MINISTRY OF FINANCE AND CORPORATE RELATIONS. FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT BRANCH. New approaches to ... unclaimed intangible property administration in British Columbia : a legislation discussion paper : working to reunite owners with their unclaimed intangible property.  (CA2 BC FN.520 1997 N21)

MUNICIPAL AND REGIONAL AFFAIRS

- 38 HOBSON, PAUL A. R. Urban governance and finance : a question of who does what / edited by Paul A.R. Hobson and France St-Hilaire. Montreal : Institute for Research on Public Policy, 1997. 207 p.
 -- Collection of papers on local government finance, "focusing on the future role of local governments in city-regions and on the equity, efficiency and accountability implications of alternative financing and expenditure arrangements." (336.014 Ur 1 1997)
- 39 HOEHN, FELIX. Municipalities and Canadian law : defining the authority of local governments. Saskatoon : Purich Pub., 1996. 371 p.
 -- "Discusses the jurisdiction of municipal governments in Canada and the constraints on their actions imposed by senior governments and the courts ... Reviews major legislation and relevant court decisions from all Canadian jurisdictions, outlining the effect these have on the authority of local governments." (342.7109 H 67 1996)
- 40 INSIGHT INFORMATION INC. Development Charges Act : impact and implementation. Toronto : Insight Press, 1997. 160 p.
 -- "A comprehensive analysis of the new Act and its impact on eligible services, trend towards area specific charges, financing municipal services and facilities, and more." (346.71304 D 49 1997)

NATIVE AFFAIRS

- 41 STENNING, PHILIP C. Police governance in First Nations in Ontario / Philip C. Stenning ; assisted by John E.S. Briggs, Marnie Crouch. Toronto : Centre of Criminology, University of Toronto, 1996. 211 p.
- "This study examines the history and present-day practices of, as well as proposals for, arrangements for governance of police in Ontario's 129 First Nations communities ... Concludes with some recommendations for ... ensuring that policing and police governance truly reflect the needs and aspirations of First Nations communities." (363.2 St 3 1996)

POLITICS AND GOVERNMENT

- 42 COOPER, BARRY. The Klein achievement. [Toronto] : University of Toronto, Faculty of Management, Centre for Public Management, 1996. 110 p.
- Discusses the progress of the current Klein government in Alberta in reducing the provincial deficit. "Klein's success, Cooper argues, was as a political manager. He was successful in appealing to the 'pride of citizens' over the demand of interest groups. Economics tells us that the Klein cuts were the obvious thing to do, but political science tells us that they should have been an impossible thing to do." -- from the back cover. (336.3 C78 1996)
- 43 HAVEL, VACLAV. The art of the impossible : politics as morality in practice : speeches and writings, 1990-1996. [Toronto] : Knopf Canada, 1997. 273 p.
- Havel is the president of the Czech Republic. (943.7105 H 29 1997)
- 44 KING, ANTHONY. Running scared : why America's politicians campaign too much and govern too little. New York : Free Press, 1997. 244 p.
- The author, a British political analyst, believes that American politicians are forced to spend too much of their time concerned with staying elected, to the detriment of dealing with the issues and problems they were elected to look at; he suggests "lengthening terms, eliminating off-year elections, reducing primary challenges and, in general, adopting a division-of-labour democracy wherein the people evaluate a politician on overall performance instead of directing his every move." (324.70973 K 58 1997)

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

- 45 FORD, ROBIN. Alternative service delivery : sharing governance in Canada / editors, Robin Ford and David Zussman. Toronto : KPMG, 1997. 288 p.
- "Different levels of government have been experimenting with alternative forms of service delivery [ASD] for a relatively short period of time ... At present, there is very little in the way of empirical data about the implications and effects of ASD. This volume ... attempts to address this information gap by systematically providing an overview and description of what is happening in the way of ASD at the federal and provincial government levels."
- Texte en français et en anglais. (354.7107 AI 7 1997)

PUBLIC FINANCE

- 46 OSBERG, LARS. Unnecessary debts / edited by Lars Osberg and Pierre Fortin. Toronto : J. Lorimer, 1996. 200 p.
- Several economists "argue that cutbacks are not the answer to Canada's debt problem." They contend that "the federal government and the Bank can cure the debt and deficit problem through lower short-term interest rates. This approach will reduce the burden of the existing public debt and put more money into the hands of indebted consumers. It will generate more jobs in the economy and, as a result, more tax revenues for government." (336.34 Un 5 1996)

SALARIES - PENSIONS - BENEFITS

- 47 BRITISH COLUMBIA. LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY. MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE. CITIZENS' PANEL.
Citizens' Panel report on MLA compensation, 1997 / prepared for the Legislative Assembly

- 48 GRANT, MICHAEL W. Ponzi game up? : Canadian youth and the Canada pension plan reforms.
Ottawa : Canadian Youth Foundation, 1996. 27 p.
-- "The intention of this paper is to provide a perspective on the implications of reforms to the Canada Pension Plan for Canadian youth so that this perspective might make a positive contribution to the legislative changes that are now being discussed." ["Some economists refer to pay-as-you-go social insurance schemes like the CPP as Ponzi games. They are essentially pyramid schemes where younger cohorts transfer income to older cohorts."] (368.43 G 76 1996)

SANTÉ ET MÉDECINE

- 49 CANADA. COMITÉ DES HAUTS FONCTIONNAIRES (ÂÎNÉS) F-P-T À L'INTENTION DES MINISTRES
RESPONSABLES DES ÂÎNÉS. Une approche concertée sur l'usage des médicaments par les

SOCIAL ISSUES

- 50 BLANK, REBECCA M. It takes a nation : a new agenda for fighting poverty. New York : Russell Sage Foundation, 1997. 340 p.
-- The author provides a response "to claims that existing antipoverty programs have failed completely ...
Demonstrating that government aid has been far more effective than most people think, she also explains that even private support for the poor depends extensively on public funds."
(362.58 B 61 1997)
- 51 BLOOM, DAN. After AFDC : welfare-to-work choices and challenges for states. New York : Manpower Demonstration Research Corporation, 1997. 135 p.
-- Presents summaries of welfare reform research from the past twenty years. "Reviews ... four key approaches to welfare reform – welfare-to-work programs, mandatory work programs, policies to change financial incentives, and time limits – and discusses the interactions among these approaches."

- 53 CALIFORNIA. BUREAU OF STATE AUDITS. Department of Social Services : review and assessment of the cost effectiveness of AFDC fraud detection programs / prepared by Deloitte & Touche. Sacramento, CA : The Auditor, 1995. 43 p.
-- Review of programs in California counties designed to detect fraudulent use of the Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) program. (US2 CA AU.... 1995 D271)
- 54 CHEAL, DAVID J. New poverty : families in postmodern society. Westport, CT : Greenwood Press, 1996.
209 p.
-- "Examine[s] some of the economic and social characteristics of poor families in the United States and Canada today." Reflects on changes to the family in modern society, such as increasing rates of dual incomes, smaller families and less reliance on the extended family structure. (362.50973 C 41 1996)

SOCIAL ISSUES (cont'd)

- 55 MURRAY, MICHAEL L. -- and economic justice for all : welfare reform for the 21st century. Armonk, NY : M.E. Sharpe, 1997. 234 p.
 -- The author believes that a guaranteed income program should replace what he feels is an ineffective, costly social security system in the United States. (362.582 M 96 1997)
- 56 SCHELLENBERG, GRANT. Left poor by the market : a look at family poverty and earnings / Grant Schellenberg and David P. Ross. Ottawa : Centre for International Studies, Canadian Council on Social Development, 1997. 49 p.
 -- "This report attempts to identify the value of public spending on income security programs for low-income families by measuring the amount of their income that is derived from the marketplace, in comparison to income from government transfers ... In this way, we can estimate what the impact of reduced government transfers would be on low-income families in Canada." (339.46 Sch 2 1997)
- 57 TANNER, MICHAEL. The end of welfare : fighting poverty in the civil society. Washington : Cato Institute, 1996. 226 p.
 -- The author feels that "government should not be involved in fighting poverty". He advocates ending welfare programs in favour of "a new paradigm based ... on civil society" which will lead to greater individual self-reliance and a stimulated economy providing more employment opportunities. Those in temporary need of assistance will be helped by non-government charities. (362.58 T 155 1996)
- 58 TELES, STEVEN MICHAEL. Whose welfare? : AFDC and elite politics. Lawrence, KS : University Press of Kansas, 1996. 226 p.
 -- "Few American social programs have been more unpopular, controversial, or costly than Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) ... Teles argues that, over the last thirty years, political debate on AFDC has been dominated by an impasse created by what he calls 'ideological dissensus' -- an enduring conflict between cultural elites that have largely disregarded public opinion." (362.713 T 23 1996)

TRANSPORTATION

- 59 KLEIN, DANIEL B. Curb rights : a foundation for free enterprise in urban transit / Daniel B. Klein, Adrian Moore, Binyam Reja. Washington : Brookings Institution Press, 1997. 148 p.
 -- Calls for reform in public transit through privatization; "explains how market forces can revitalize transit in the face of competition from the automobile." (388.4 K 67 1997)
- 60 RAJAN, SUDHIR CHELLA. The enigma of automobility : democratic politics and pollution control. Pittsburgh, PA : University of Pittsburgh Press, 1996. 203 p.
 -- "This book tries to untangle the political difficulties and opportunities created by a public constituted, on the one hand, of drivers who pollute the environment simply because they drive cars with internal combustion engines and, on the other, of citizens who need protection from the harmful effects of this pollution." (388.321 R 13 1996)

 - Focusing on the decades following 1940, this book "documents the causes and effects of changes made in this century to Canada's health care policy. The authors propose a shift away from the "welfare state" model toward what has been called the "welfare society," in which there is greater participation of individuals and communities. They advocate partnership with business and research communities and reform and restructuring through regionalization."
(362.10971 H 348 1997)
- 17 ONTARIO NURSES' ASSOCIATION. Ontario perspectives on nursing care : a report prepared for the Ontario Nurses' Association. Toronto : POLLARA, 1997. 1 v.

(331.124 B 86 1997)
- 20 HADDOW, RODNEY. Social partnerships for training : Canada's experiment with labour force development boards / edited by Andrew Sharpe and Rodney Haddow. [Ottawa] : Centre for the Study of Living Standards, 1997. 318 p.
 - "At one level, Canada's experiment with social corporatism in the form of labour force development boards has been disappointing. At another level, however, the boards represent a natural laboratory which tells us much about the political economy of labour market policy, and the barriers to institutional innovation in the Canadian political system." One chapter deals with the now defunct Ontario Training and Adjustment Board.
(331.12042 So 1 1997)

NATIVE AFFAIRS

- 21 DENIS, CLAUDE. We are not you : First Nations and Canadian modernity. Peterborough, ON. : Broadview Press, 1997. 178 p.
- Starting with "a 1992 court case, Peters v. Campbell, in which Joseph Peters sued fellow members of his Coast Salish people who, at his wife's instigation, forced him to undergo traditional ceremonies in order to resolve various marital difficulties...this book is an exploration of the language of power and authority, of individual and collective rights, and of the politics of difference." (342.710872 D 41 1997)

NATURAL RESOURCES

- 22 LEVY, MARCELO. A citizen's guide to forest management planning in Ontario / Marcelo Levy and Chris Lompart. Don Mills : Federation of Ontario Naturalists, 1996. 56 p.
- This guide has been written to assist "citizens who want to play an active role in ensuring that Ontario's forests are managed on an ecological basis", providing appropriate background and offering "clear direction on how to analyze forest management plans and get involved." (634.92 L 57 1996)

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

- 23 6, PERRI. The contract culture in public services : studies from Britain, Europe, and the USA / edited by Perri 6 and Jeremy Kendall. Brookfield, VT : Arena, 1997. 216 p.
- Argues that "state contracting with voluntary organisations needs to be viewed not as a technical matter of little importance, but as a basic reconfiguration of the power relationships and policies that colour the lives of millions of people." (361.7068 C 76 1997)
- 24 BARTIK, TIMOTHY J. Growing state economies : how taxes and public services affect private-sector performance. Washington : Economic Policy Institute, 1996. 70 p.
- Central question addressed in this report is whether public spending and taxes have important indirect effects on economic development - productivity, jobs, or output - over and above their direct effects on households. Results suggest that increases in state and local public services have positive and important effects on manufacturing productivity and output. However, state and local taxes have important but negative effects on private-sector performance. (338.06 B 28 1996)
- 25 BLAIS, ANDRÉ. Governments, parties, and public sector employees : Canada, United States, Britain, and France / André Blais, Donald E. Blake, Stéphane Dion. [Montreal] : McGill-Queen's University Press, 1997. 189 p.
- General hypothesis examined in this study is: "Parties and governments of the left tend to be more generous toward public sector employees than parties and governments of the right... The overall pattern of findings indicate that most of the time the left is more generous than the right." (331.11 B 57 1997)
- 26 INSIGHT INFORMATION INC. Devolution of government services : best practices and lessons learned. Toronto : Insight Press, 1997. 280 p.
- Papers delivered at an Insight conference held May 14-15, 1997 including speakers from federal government, consulting firms and private companies. (352.538 D 49 1997)

SOCIAL ISSUES

- 28 COHEN, ERMINIE JOY. Sounding the alarm : poverty in Canada / by the Honourable Erminie Joy Cohen, Senator with Angela Petten. [Ottawa : s.n.], 1997. 46, 48 p.
 -- "The purpose of this report is to bring the complex problem poverty to the attention of the Canadian public and the collective mind of government with the expectation that a comprehensive anti-poverty strategy will be developed and acted upon." (362.50971 C 66 1997)
- 29 EDMONTON SOCIAL PLANNING COUNCIL. Two paycheques away : social policy and hunger in Edmonton. Edmonton : Edmonton Social Planning Council : Edmonton Gleaners Association, 1996. 78 p.
 -- "Caught in a squeeze between a hardening, polarized economy and income security programs providing spotty support in a time of crisis, 36,500 men, women and children in Edmonton are forced to turn to the Food Bank for help. This study breaks down some of the myths surrounding families living in poverty." (362.58 T 93 1996)
- 30 FREEMAN, RICHARD B. The welfare state in transition : reforming the Swedish model / edited by Richard B. Freeman, Robert Topel, and Birgitta Swedenborg. Chicago : University of Chicago Press, 1997. 477 p.
 -- Results of the NBER-SNS project on Sweden which enlisted ten American and ten Swedish economists to study various aspects of the Swedish economy and welfare state, once a role model for other countries. (330.9485 W 45 1997)
- 31 GREENBERG, MARK. Limits on limits : state and federal policies on welfare time limits / Mark Greenberg, Steve Savner, Rebecca Swartz. Washington : CLASP, 1996. 85 p.
 (362.713 G.82 I 1996)
- 32 PARTON, NIGEL. Child protection and family support : tensions, contradictions and possibilities/ edited by Nigel Parton. London : Routledge, 1997. 264 p.
 -- Draws on recent research, case studies and examples from the UK and abroad. (362.70944 C 43 1997)
- 33 TERNOWETSKY, GORDON WILLIAM. Child and family policies : struggles, strategies and options / edited by Jane Pulkingham and Gordon Ternowetsky. Halifax : Fernwood, 1997. 232 p.
 -- "The papers in this collection address the changing context of child and family policies...analyze the implications of government policy shifts showing how they are particularly problematic for children of low-income, welfare, First Nations and single parent families... [and] suggest policy options and some directions that advocacy groups might take in developing a politics of influence." (362.828 C 43 1997)

TAXATION

- 34 SHUGHART, WILLIAM F. Taxing choice : the predatory politics of fiscal discrimination / edited by William F. Shughart II ; foreword by Paul W. McCracken. New Brunswick, NJ : Transaction Publishers, 1997. 396 p.
 -- "The role of selective taxes and the criteria which should guide their use - these are issues that deserve much more analysis than they have received in recent years, and that is the objective of this volume. It comes along none too soon since far more is involved here than such phrases as nuisance taxes or sin taxes might seem to imply." (336.2 T 199 1997)

-- "The book documents the problems of fraud, misrepresentation, and manipulation of prices which plagued the securities industry from the outset and which eventually led to market regulation, first by stock-exchanges and later, after the First World War, by governments. ... It is also an in-depth study based on extensive primary research that captures the distinctiveness of the development of the Canadian securities market." (332.64271 Ar 5 1997)

CANADIAN STUDIES

- 4 ANGUS, IAN H. A border within : national identity, cultural plurality, and wilderness. Montreal : McGill-Queen's University Press, 1997. 268 p.
-- "Ian Angus examines the relationship between globalizing social movements and the particularities of identity politics by extending the theories of Harold Innis and George Grant. ... The author breaks down the superficial oppositions that have been the traditional touchstones of discussions of Canadian identity – the Garrison and the Wilderness, colony and empire, Canada and the U.S., the Self and the Other – in favour a view that does justice to the complex intertwining of identity and difference." GENERAL INTEREST

- 15 EVANS, ROBERT C. Moral leadership : facing Canada's leadership crisis. Toronto : McGraw-Hill Ryerson, 1998. 209 p.
-- [The author] ... "contends that leadership stripped of all its trappings and rhetoric, is simply the exercise of moral courage – the willingness, confidence and passion to act and accept the consequences. ... Evans explores the erosion of our individual sense of right and wrong and the growth of a culture of blame avoidance now rampant in Canada. He identifies the problem, but he goes farther by describing the redemptive steps that could lead us back to the morally responsible leadership we expect." (172.0971 Ev 1 1997)
